

For Immediate Release:

Singer-Guitarist, folk-rock artist Jeff Wiley will perform a concert of original songs at the newly renovated Strand Theater in Zelienople, PA. Saturday March 6th at 7:30 pm. Wiley a native Western- Pennsylvanian will be performing with his band and will draw from his more recent CD's including "Secrets and Promises", "Butterfly Sessions" and from his latest release "Narrow Path".

The group is donating their performance in order to raise awareness of the Connequenessing Valley Community Chest, which provides funding for the Zelienople Community Park, Zelienople Library, The Southwestern Butler County Food Cupboard, and Meals on Wheels. All proceeds will benefit the CVCC.

Tickets are $10. in advance and are available through The Strand Theatre Box Office, through select merchants, online at thestrandtheater.org or by calling 724-742-0400. Any tickets available on the day of the show will be $12. Doors open at 6pm for a Café' Setting of Coffee, Wine tasting, art display, silent auction and an opening performance by Pittsburgh artist Sue Gartland.

Wiley has performed with other group members at numerous Pittsburgh area venues in the past including the Star Lake Amphitheater, and I C Lite Amphitheater, Rosebud, and as a soloist at Club Café.

For further information regarding this performance, contact Todd Wehr at Wehrmusic@earthlink.net or 724-679-0279